(4) A duty imposed by subsection (2) or (3) shall be performed within 3 business days after the day on which that duty arises.

(5) A listed corporation is not, by virtue of anything done for the purposes of this section, affected with notice of, or put upon enquiry as to, the rights of any person in relation to any shares or equity derivatives.

(6) The register must be so made up that the entries against the several names recorded in it appear in chronological order.

(7) Unless the register is in such form as to constitute in itself an index, the listed corporation shall keep an index of the names recorded in the register which shall in respect of each name contain a sufficient indication to enable the information recorded against it to be readily found.

(8) The listed corporation shall, within 10 business days after the day on which a name is recorded in the

(12) The corporation shall send notice in the form specified by the Commission for the purposes of this section to the Registrar of Companies of-

(b) any change in that place, unless the register has at all times been kept at the corporation's registered office.

(13) The duty imposed by subsection (12) shall be performed within 10 business days after the day on which the register is so kept or the change takes place (as the case may be).

(14) If default is made in complying with any provision of this section, the listed corporation concerned and every officer of it who is in default commit an offence and each is liable on conviction to a fine at level 1 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of $200 for every day during which the offence continues.
